Pre-paid funeral plans

Nigel has been serving the community of Chandlers Ford and the surrounding area for over 35 years. Nigel became an independent funeral director in 2006, establishing his business at 27 Hursley Road. The family-run business includes his daughter Lucy who successfully completed her diploma in Funeral Directing in 2015.

John entered the funeral profession in the late 1990s and obtained his diploma in funeral directing. John enjoys the variety that comes with modern funerals and is passionate about the care of the deceased.

Sarah is the latest member to join the team and has been working within the funeral industry for over seven years, completing her diploma in 2018. Sarah enjoys making funeral services as personalised as possible and even searching for alternative venues to really capture the essence of a loved one.

Together with our dedicated qualified funeral directors we offer a 24-hour service, 365 days a year and treat each funeral as unique as the individual to suit different situations and the wishes of the family.

With our many years of experience, we offer professional guidance on the style and location of the ceremony, from a simple committal to a personalised bespoke service that reflects the individual.

We are here to offer help and guidance on all aspects of funerals, including pre-paid funeral plans for those who wish to plan ahead. For help with any aspect of funeral planning or to find out more about pre-arranged funeral plans get in touch today.
